

CRI to participant in SHRM Diversity Conference and ERE Expo in October

LOS ANGELES, CA / [10/15/07] -- CRI, a global Recruitment Process Outsourcing (RPO) firm, will participate in two major industry conferences in October of 2007.

The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) Diversity Conference held this year in Philadelphia, PA will bring together HR professional and thought leaders to discuss the training and development surrounding diversity and inclusion hiring.

CRI's commitment to diversity hiring and specialized service offering will be on display October 17th-19th.

CRI will be at Booth 319 to discuss the role of RPO in Diversity hiring and the effectiveness of process integration as it relates to achieving Diversity Hiring goals.

In addition to the SHRM conference, CRI will also have a presence at the annual Electronic Recruiting Exchange (ERE) Expo in Washington D.C. The Expo is an international gathering of recruiting industry leaders.

CRI will be at booth 216 sharing information about RPO best practices and unique solutions.
